Thanks everyone for sharing wonderful memories and unforgettable experiences. It's been a great couple of years and as I have grown to know and respect each one of you, it will be with a twinge of sadness that we part our separate ways. Mom and Dad- You have always been there for me and I owe all that I am today to your guiding influences and examples. Nellie- We been together from "Animal Crackers" to "Midnight Chocolate Runs," I love you and will miss you. Sydney- sweet pea don't you ever forget, "leave the angry outside." K. A.- you have been a very influential part of my life and a friend I could turn too in times of trouble, your one of those people that can touch the lives of others without them even noticing it, loves. M. H- What do you get when you combined, Sussical, yeoman farmers, and the Capital of Massachusetts?-one heck of a good time. A.vB.- Bring it on! Monte Python has nothing on us, when we get together you never know what's going to happen, just hope its legal. C.O- Munchkins anyone? You are awesome Oak! D.S.-We need to be separated. G.R.-Foxy lady, I couldn't possible forget my coconspirator throughout this year, toilet papering, working for Mitt Romney, taking Salem completely by surprise, infiltrating Edds Heritage, and starting project Atomic Café, much love.

Karla Arteaga

I'm the exchange student from VENEZUELA! It's in South America, has beautiful beaches, snow (although not where I live) and a lot fun things to do. The age, it's 18, so see you there guys! Activities: I was in the cross-country team. (YOUR ROCK GUYS!) Memories: HALLOWEEN! & the first day of snow. Well it's not too much, what I can say in just a few a months. But Thanks, everybody, for being so nice and so open with me. I know it's not easy the last year being with someone totally new, but believe me it's not easy to come somewhere without knowing the language. But thanks just for making it easier for me to be here. Smiling or just saying hi to me in the hall helps a lot! I have seen a lot of new people and so many different ways to see life. So just good luck to everybody for whatever you want to do. Be strong and whatever you do try to be happy! Chao, Gracias por todo, pasenla lindo, espero que hayan disfrutado este ultimo ano al maximol!!con carino, Karla.

Alicia Marie Bailey

Throughout my life I've set my goals and never let anyone come between them. One of my great achievements is joining karate. My greatest goals are college, going for black belt and beyond, learning new interesting things, and more. I have many great interests in life and I hope to explore them all. Over the years I have gained a certain confidence and wisdom. One thing that I've learned is that growing up can be over-rated. Sometimes, though, life calls for a particular maturity. I know not to work too hard to the point of stress, but to work hard for your goals and to never give up on them. These words I say also is advice to anyone who reads this. One of my favorite quotes of all time is: "Too much fantasy loses reality, too much hope may seem somehow empty." Akira Toriyama. I also want to say that I love all of my friends as if they were family, which includes everyone at karate, and to my friends Justin Lindstrom: Ham-Hams 4-eva, Kelly Martineau, Emily Rowe, Kyle Robertson, and Matt Zimmer. .

Belinda Chapman Barrett

Elise-Thanks for always being there for me. We've shared a lot of great memories together and I hope there is many more to come.

Grace-What would I do without you? Thanks for being such a great friend, you've made these past 4 years unforgettable. You will always hold a place in my heart.

Andy-My Band Buddy. I'm so glad we became friends. You have such a great personality, don't let your shyness get the best of you. Best Wishes in whatever comes your way.

Anthony-You never stop talking! But that's ok we all love you anyways, thanks for the great times!

Allie-We've been through it all and nothing's broken us apart. Your everything a best friend could ever want. You have always been there for me. Thanks girl!

Sean-You have changed my life forever. You have become my high school sweetheart, love and best friend. We have shared so many great moments and memories and I can't wait for all the ones to come. I Love You!

Mom&Dad-You have always been there for me and I'm so glad God gave me two very special parents who care about me so much. I Love You Both!

Class of 2003-The past 4 years have been Great! Good Luck!

C.O. What can I say? You're my high school sweetheart. We started going out in June 2001 and by the time we graduate it will be almost two years together. You've been everything to me since we got together. I'll always be there for you no matter what. I love you baby! B.B. You're a hippie but you've been there for me since second grade. Fun times in the basement. D.S. We live completely different lives but for some reason I still consider you one of the best friends I've ever had. We haven't hung out much in the past few years but don't worry we'll chill before college. C.L. "Dude, your belly is out of control". You'll be giving me $50 in the spring after you lose our bet. A.P. For some reason, you drive like a moron but still have your license. I don't get it. It'll catch up to you "Stealth Fer". S.M.- Your party was still the best. "pospicles" K. Anlt may not seem big but when you sat down at the lunch table and talked to me the first day I came back to this school, it meant a ton. Thank you. E.H.- Neighbors forever. I hate writing about stuff. It's kind of like talking only you have more time to think. I was never one to say much so I wouldn't want to confuse anyone reading this twenty years from now so I will keep my thoughts on high school short. "

Insanity is doing the same thing over and over again and expecting different results" --Albert Einstein, and school seemed pretty repetitious to me. Good luck 2003

Oak William (Bill) J. Cashman

"What's the matter doctor". Those famous words uttered from the destructive and maniacal nutcracker. For all those who don't know him, he makes for a very entertaining movie. I also can't forget other entertaining hazardous moments such as pudding wrestling, light ball, topiary diving, ultimate foosball, extreme darts, and playing Frisbee with a big upside-down bowl. Then the craziest thing ever was spilling that full pitcher of water at the Chinese restaurant. Mr. Galante, do you walk to school or bring a lunch? I'd also like to use this space to give an uncharacteristic shout out to Jacob, Tom, Pat, Hilary, Cory, Evan, Pete, Brad,, Ryan, Matt, Drew, Mr. Murray, anyone else who put their life on the line in the previously mentioned endeavors, and my Spanish II class. Also, Francis stay out of trouble!

Well, we done done it now. Four long years have passed to come down to these last few months, and then its off to bigger and better things. But you still got another two already in this school. Gabrlel, a little menace that's gonna keep playin sports if he knows whats good for him. And Alexa, the one who does all of the activities around. Watch out for those two Georgetown.

have to thank most of the faculty here, because so much has been done for me.

Don't worry Gates, one day you'll grow up to be the next Bob Cousy.

So to Georgetown; jammer stick and all the rest, peace.

High School soon will be just a memory but it will also be memories I will never forget. I'll never forget the funny times with Greg and the funny times with Jacob. I'll never forget Greg with the peaches and his knack for instant come backs that would leave the table in laughter. I will never forget Jacob with his, sometimes vulgar, and random hilarious comments. Also I'll never forget Jacob in Ms. Burke's class.

I'll never forget my two best friends Jason and Vin. Jason I'll never forget the random names for each other, the random noises, and the fight over the cookie. What an incredible journey we've all gone on. Yet this is not the end of the line. We've got one more big adventure ahead of us before we embark upon the most important journey of all: the Real World. Once we reach the limits of mooching off parents and we enter the world all alone, I suppose I won't see half of you ever again. For some of you this is a good thing, but for me, I know I'll miss most of you. I know I'll see at least Kate Arnold a few more times in my life. I don't know what I can say to you, neighbor. You've been one of my best friends since... since forever. I wish you the best of luck in absolutely everything you do. EWOKS FOREVER! Kristen, you know I love you! Wow... Since 1st grade, huh? Unbelievable! All I can say is that I'm not worthy. I'll never forget you... Never. Our unforgettable adventures will follow me to the edge of the abyss and beyond. You always are and forever will be TROUBLE! Of course, I've got to give a shout out back to my buddy Bill. Good luck in the army. Dr. Jay a.k.a. Justin good luck to you too. We will make this book, I promise. At some point in time, we will make it. And then, of course, there are the obscured figures of some importance. Remember shop class, Montoya, and don't forget the "goddamn Mongolians!" As you can see, I'm running out of room here. And before I reach the end of the line, I want to wish everyone the best of luck in all future endeavors. I'll be back...

skateboard, Wyoming's a pretty far drive, I'll make it, 10lb. bass, what? Good times in Hampton. Mathias, summer of doing nothing. Late night Salisbury sessions. Brett Pare, B&W, what else do I have to say. Amber, thanks for all the presents. Sarah, no more garage, the end of an era. Hey Jill, you sleeping over tonight? Kevin, We're the Aliens. To the class of 2003, skate hard and stay punk.

Senior year definitely some good times, study hall trying to draw that stupid triangle thing Throwing vegetables in the café, New math class, Ms. Walsh didn't do that, Hardline promotions, swimming through middle schoolers, Doing absolutely nothing in art class Finger boarding during lunch, failing Spanish (miserably), watching Mike and Rick argue during art, anonymous freshman 26092, the old guy yelling to turn off the go-ped, Telling the little chilln to go inside on Halloween, pouring water on heather, pushing heather in the bush and plenty more. Shout outs to Scop, Bill, Graffi, Dave, Ethan, and pretty much everyone else I hang with. Senior year has been fun so far let's keep it that way. Expecting the prom to be awesome this year hopefully we go all out and make it a memorable one for school history. And oh yes the senior pranks will be good this year ha ha just kidding. Well that's all for now. GHS Basketball 2002 lets get farther in the tourney this year.

Who would have thought that the "Plaid Brothers" would still be friends after all these years? While our classmates are having "real" parties and getting kicked out of college, we will be rox0ring it up in the virtual world with our uber-lan parties. Tribes is not just a game, it is a way of life. There has never been, and will never be a clan as mighty as the Mayhem Warriors. Never forget our lunch table. It was the best part of going to school.
Ian: Will you 3V3R stop playing CS?! Pete: Hopefully in college, you won't catch a case of the Psehoasian virus which you seem to get so often... Chris: Thanks for making Market Basket a little more interesting...Vin: Do us all a favor and get a Mac. My family: thanks for always being there for me. Most of the rest of the class: I'd be perfectly happy not seeing any of you for a very, very long time after we graduate. Time to rip off this "the Quiet Kid" label which has been stuck to my forehead since fourth grade...

The past four years of high school have been fun. It's strange to know that we're all going out into the real world now, off to college and will probably have to work for the rest of our lives (hopefully happily). To all my friends that I've had a great time with in the past, I'm going to miss you. Hopefully we'll keep in touch or at least meet again. Derek I had a great time on our camping trip: fishing, four wheeling and having fun. Let's keep the tradition alive. I had fun skiing and snowboarding every winter with Mike D, Murphy and Derek. I hope we keep going winter after winter. Four years of high school hockey with Pentucket was always fun but a lot of hard work. We all had some great times when we got our licenses. Dragging the shop lawn tractor, not to mention a few other items such as a washing machine, being the co-pilot during some lawn jobs, and all the races, for instance, were all awesome. Going to the movies with Tim & Nick. "Tim, put on a sweatshirt!" Nick & Murphy, you've probably been my longest friend since the old days in mites hockey. Tim, Murphy, Scott, Jared K. & I built the loudest hot rod tractor in shop class & Murphy broke it running into some kid on a bike, then I crashed it into the woods (by accident). Derek & I will always remember the good times at work with Lou & all the others. I hope we all remain friends & I wish the best to everyone. Thanks

FAREWELL

To Mr. Luca, who can't comment without a strong sarcastic edge and whose slight dyslexia prevents him from tearing "tabs" correctly. Thank you for your knowledge in formatting the pages so they are not symmetric.

To Mrs. Clay, whose hours of dedication and hard work really made this yearbook possible. Thank you.

To the yearbook staff, who would consistently leave meetings at 7:45 to catch the new episodes of Friends. Thank you for all your pictures, your ideas, your effort, and your interest in making this yearbook "wicked sweet." To those of you dedicated seniors (hint hint) who went out and sold ads for our yearbook, thank you for defraying some of the cost for your peers.

High school has had its ups and downs, but we can all be thankful for the times we've had. Our experiences have prepared us for the times to come.

GHS is a school that I will never forget. There are so many memories I will always look back on: some good, some bad, and some ugly. But having a class as awesome as this one has made my high school years unforgettable.

It's been a long journey, but now it's over. Good luck to everyone in the future.

Mrs. Cole,

On behalf of the Class of 2003 I would like to thank you for all of the time and effort you put into making our senior year successful. You started out as our advisor in our freshman year. We were all new to the school system that year. We adapted to this new environment together and we succeeded. Through the years we have had numerous dances, pie sales, lollipop sales, and two huge fund-raisers for the town of Georgetown. Our Halloween Party and our Town Cook-out were our most successful fund-raisers ever. Together we were able to raise a sufficient amount of money for the prom and yearbook.

Once again, thank you for all of your time and support. We are forever grateful for the influence you have had on our class. We will surely miss you when we leave on graduation day.

Thank you.

Jen Hudon

President of the class of 2003
